Miami costumava ser uma música de uma nota só, com South Beach DOMINANDO A CENA DAS ARTES E ENTRETENIMENTO — até CRAIG ROBINS ver o potencial que tinha no outro lado da baía. Ele desencavou imóveis entre as ruas 36th e 43rd e convenceu os principais designers de móveis a mudarem para o local. Foi assim que Robins acabou criando o clima que atrairia os melhores restaurantes, lojas de alto luxo e ATIVIDADES ARTÍSTICAS, tudo o que hoje define bem o Design District. Visitando a cidade? CONFIRA ESTES ESPAÇOS. VOCÊ NÃO PODE PERDER...

Miami used to be a ONE-TRICK PONY, with South Beach DOMINATING THE ARTS-AND-ENTERTAINMENT SCENE — until CRAIG ROBINS saw POTENTIAL on the other side of the bay. He scooped up PROPERTY BETWEEN 36TH AND 43RD STREETS and persuaded top furniture designers to relocate there, ultimately creating a vibe that would attract the TOP RESTAURANTS, HIGH-END RETAIL SHOPS, AND ARTS-AND-CULTURAL ACTIVITY that define the Design District today. Heading to town? CHECK OUT THESE CAN'T-MISS SPOTS...

NE 42th Street

De la Cruz Collection Contemporary Art Space

(25 NE 41st St., 305.576.6112, delacruzcollection.com) One of the top art collections in Miami, housed in a three-story, 30,000-square-foot building.

Dolce Vita Cashmere

(51 NE 40th St., 305.960.9992, dolcevitacashmere.com) Cashmere is no longer just for sweaters, according to owner Veronica Zorzi. It's for dresses and men's jackets too. Zorzi won the 2013 Prêt-à-Porter Style Award at Miami Fashion Week before opening her showroom in April.

Dior Homme

(66 NE 40th St., 305.571.3576, dior.com) There's no place like Homme for menswear. The Design District location is Dior's only one in the U.S. outside of New York.

Ornare

(4040 NE 2nd Ave., 305.438.0060, ornare.com) This contemporary interior-design company from Brazil is a trendsetter for high-end closets, kitchens, and baths.

MC Kitchen

(4141 NE 2nd Ave., 305.456.9948, mckitchenmiami.com) Cooking is an art for chef Dena Marino, who puts her modern Italian cuisine on display with her open-style kitchen.

I on the District

(330 NE 40th St., 305.573.0400, ionthedistrict.com) Designer frames from around the world let you look sharp while seeing clearly.

Orianne Collins Jewellery

(90 NE 39th St., 305.915.5615, oriannecollins.com) Opulence is in the air tonight as Phil Collins's ex-wife Orianne Collins draws inspiration from her Swiss and Thai cultural origins at her exclusive boutique located within Fendi Casa Luxury Living.

Hermès

(75 NE 40th St., Miami, 305.568.0016, hermes.com) A trendsetter in fashion, Hermès followed the trend in real estate, moving from Bal Harbour to the Miami Design District in 2013 and bringing with it the hottest styles in handbags, jewelry, home furnishings, and men's and women's ready-to-wear.

Prada

(180 NE 40th St., 305.438.2080, prada.com) Luxury hit a new jewel when Prada moved to this Roberto Baciocchi-designed store.

Baci Lingerie

(160 NE 40th St., 786.309.2345, baci.com) Design your next evening at Baci, which reminds you there is no finer art than the human body.

Turchin Love and Light

(130 NE 40th St., 305.573.7107, turchinjewelry.com) A Design District pioneer and a Jennifer Aniston favorite, this shop sells jewelry and accessories that have Asian and African influences and a rock edge.

The Stage

(170 NE 38th St., 305.576.9577, thestageinmiami.com) Enjoy live music and a cocktail or two at this intimate, laid-back, hipster-friendly lounge.

The Cypress Room

(3620 NE 2nd Ave., 305.520.5197, thecypressroom.com) The latest from top Miami chef Michael Schwartz, of Michael's Genuine Food & Drink. There's live jazz on the wall and antelope on the menu.

MY DESIGN DISTRICT DAY

TERESA TURCHIN

When ex-model Theresa Turchin met her husband, Miami native Tommy Turchin, the couple recorded two CDs and toured as Me and the Blue Dog. Now they bring their rock style to their jewelry store, Turchin Love and Light, and spend their days touring the Design District. Here's a look at Theresa's typical day.

10 a.m. Manicure at Brownes & Co. for the best French manicures and long-lasting shellac!

11 a.m. I'm off to Crumb on Parchment to meet my hubby for my favorite homemade granola and café. Tommy is in love with the pastries—they are really to die for!

1 p.m. In between work on new designs, new projects, and brand growth, we usually eat lunch at Michael's Genuine Food & Drink. We adore their amazing pizza (which is thin and perfectly crispy), daily specials, mixed salad, and ridiculously decadent desserts. We also love checking out ThreadCount, since I can't get enough of their sumptuous bedding. Tommy agrees. Who doesn't love to roll around in 800-plus cotton?!

7 p.m. I'm at HairDragon Salon getting a trim or blow-dry.

8 p.m. You'll find Tommy and me at Mandolin Aegean Bistro. It's a romantic setting and has the best Greek food!
